

Lyle McDonald

Lyle M. McDonald, 87, of Orem, died Monday, Dec. 1, 1986 in Orem of causes incident to age.

He was born Nov. 11, 1899 in Emery to Norman and Rozella Curtis McDonald. He married Edna Mae Smith Sept. 11, 1919 in the Manti Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

He graduated from Salina High School and also graduated from BYU with a degree in Elementary Education in 1983. Following his marriage, he and his wife made their home in Salina, living there until 1927. They made their home in Provo until 1937 at which time they moved to Orem where he has lived since. He was the first postmaster in Orem serving from 1942 to 1949. He also served as a bus driver for the Alpine School District. He also had worked at Geneva Steel for 10 years. He was circulation manager for The Daily Herald for 10 years, and was also employed at Utah State Hospital in Provo.

Lyle M. McDonald

He was an active member of the LDS Church, Orem 25th Ward. He was a member of the High Priests Group for many years. He served as MIA president. He was always active in scouting and served on many scouting committees. He served in two bishoprics. He was also active in politics.

Survivors include his wife of Orem; five sons, one daughter; Richard S. McDonald, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Lila Mae Pace, North Hollywood, Calif.; E. John McDonald, Morab; Stewart L. McDonald, Claremont, Calif.; Malcolm McDonald, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Robert L. McDonald, West Valley City; 27 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren.

Services will be Friday at 11 a.m., Orem 25th Ward LDS Chapel, 600 N. 800 E., Orem. Friends may call at Berg Mortuary of Orem, 500 N. State, Thursday 6-8 p.m. or at the church Friday one hour prior to services. Burial will be in the Redmond Cemetery.